Education Program: Transforming Lives Through Learning

While tuition is free in Honduras, many families cannot afford school materials, uniforms, and shoes, making it difficult for children to attend school. Additionally, children are often needed at home to help produce food or assist with household responsibilities.

When we began our education mission, no student advanced beyond the 6th grade. Thanks to your generosity, we have helped over 2,000 children continue their studies, with more than 250 graduates achieving a brighter future.

The Impact of Your Support

Students Sponsored Over the Years:

- ✓ 581 children in 2016
- ✓ 700 children in 2017
- ✓ 811 children in 2018
- ✓ 840 children in 2020
- ✓ 846 children in 2021
- ✓ 100 refurbished laptops delivered to students and teachers in 2024, expanding learning opportunities through new programs and internet access for research and lesson planning.

The school year in Honduras runs from February to November, and gathering supplies takes time and resources. While tuition is free, students must provide their own backpacks, school materials, and uniforms—expenses many families simply cannot afford.
